A child has the right to be a child!

Newsletter nr. 1 – March 2024

Dear friends and other interested parties,

Here we are again with the latest news from Lira, Northern-Uganda.

After a nice Christmas party and a nice New Year's Eve, we started the new year with rain. And that in the so-called "dry season". It was very spectacular at times, when the rain came pouring down, full of lightning flashes and thunder. As a result, another lake formed around our entrance to the site.

They are now busy renovating everything, so that there will be no more problems during the next rainy period. Currently it is very hot and dry, belated "dry season".

Joshua received a "new" suit.

We had something to celebrate, Morrison Okello graduated and obtained a bachelor's degree in Finance and Accounting.

In February, Sarah received her A level results. She has passed and can now possibly go to a university or college. Those courses will begin in September.

My idea to go to the Ruwenzori Mountains together has been well received. We received enough donations, thank you very much for this.

It was a great experience, the children enjoyed it to the fullest. We stayed at Ruboni Community Camp. That was already high up in the mountains. You had to climb quite a bit to get to the various levels, such as cottage level, restaurant level.

Accompanied by 2 guides we went for a walk through the forest and near the river on the first day, on the second day we climbed a mountain.

On the way back we had a delicious dinner at the Buffalo Hotel in Hoima.

David Odur goes to school in Moroto, far away in the north-east of the country. During the holidays he is lovingly taken care of by Pamela, a wonderful woman from the Karamojong tribe, who helps 6 young people in this way. We went to meet them and that was very special.

Sometimes children are visited by relatives, which is very nice. That's how aunt Dolly came to visit her niece, Dinah.

Absolom has been living with me in the Netherlands for some time now. He met a photographer who asked him to model for a photo contest. He won!

In a few days we will celebrate Easter again.
The feast of the Resurrection, of Light in the darkness.

We wish you all a blessed Easter.
